TRIO OF SPEAKERS AT OPEN FORUM TUESDAY CLUB

Law, Teaching and Newspaper Work Are Discussed; Bids for New Home

By CORINNE ORFF

The advantages and also some of the problems of women's work in pedagogy, the newspaper and also the legal profession were the topics of the symposium at the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club at Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles H. Toll, member of the local club and also president of the Los Angeles Ebell club, was the speaker on "Women in Pedagogy." Mrs. Kemper Campbell on "Women in the Legal Profession," and Miss Pearl Hall on "Women in the Newspaper World."

The meeting yesterday was the last open forum session to be held, the members having voted to meet only twice a month for the coming year.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, president, announced that on account of the short time it had been impossible for contractors to submit bids on the new clubhouse, and stated that members of the ways and means committee will hold a meeting tonight to consider bids, which might necessitate the calling of a special meeting of the club.

Mrs. John C. Dunn, secretary, read a communication from the San Fernando History and Landmark section of the San Fernando Ebell club in the form of a resolution protesting against proposed changing of name of San Fernando valley to Los Angeles valley. Motion carried unanimously that the Tuesday afternoon club endorse action taken by the San Fernando Ebell club and that the organization be notified of same.

Letter from Mrs. Boyer

A very interesting letter, which had been received by Mrs. Hutchinson from Mrs. H. R. Boyer, who is at present in Vienna, Austria, was read. This described after-war conditions in that country. She stated that an American dollar, which formerly bought five kronen now buys 10,000. She also described the lunches being served the undernourished children. The American relief officers close their work in June.

FOOTHILL SECTION IMPROVEMENTS DISCUSSED

Association Makes Plans to Further Interests of Attractive District

The members of the Foothill Improvement Association met at the Central avenue school last night with Alexander Mitchell as temporary chairman and Mrs. Myrtle Buckman as secretary, at which time many items of interest were discussed, among which were:

First. The extension of Patterson avenue to San Fernando road, which, in the estimation of the association, would benefit the city of Glendale by diverting lighter traffic and sight-seeing busses through the main part of the city.

Second. That the Foothill Improvement Association endorse the building of a bridge over Los Angeles river into Griffith Park at the extension of Broadway.

Third. That the city of Glendale and Chamber of Commerce ask the sight-seeing busses of Los Angeles, which run to Pasadena, to divert their route through Eagle Rock and Glendale and over the northwest section of Glendale, the foothill district and back to the business section of Glendale and over Glendale boulevard to Los Angeles. This would advertise the foothill residence section and also the business center of Glendale.

Fourth. Regarding the accident at Central avenue and the Burbank car line yesterday at 1:30 o'clock, the Foothill Improvement Association decided to write the city council to protest and have a wig-wag signal put up at that point. Also, that the association ask the attention of the school board, as this is a dangerous corner for children within the school zone.

Fifth. The new Grand View school is fast reaching completion and will be ready for the fall term. This and the new fire house just completed are added attractions to this fast growing section of Glendale.

ARRANGE FUNERAL SERVICES OF JUDGE BALLINGER
SEATTLE, June 7.—Funeral arrangements are being made today for Judge Richard A. Ballinger, former secretary of the interior, who died at his home here last night. Apparently in good health, although he had complained Sunday of indigestion, his death is attributed to heart failure. Judge Ballinger was appointed secretary of the interior by President Taft in 1909. He was born in Boonesborough, Iowa, July 9, 1858, and is survived by a widow and two sons.

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY OF SLAYING HER HUSBAND
OAKLAND, June 7.—Mrs. Virginia Clark, once convicted of murdering her husband, Chester J. Clark, and sentenced to San Quentin for life, later being returned here for re-trial, today stands convicted of manslaughter. The verdict was returned after the jury had deliberated six hours. Sentence will be pronounced Saturday. Mrs. Clark and her attorneys announced they were well satisfied with the verdict.

FRANCE TO HOLD OLYMPIC GAMES, NOW BELIEF
PARIS, June 7.—Paris was virtually assured of holding the Olympic games in 1924, today when Premier Poincaré, receiving members of the Olympic committee, promised categorically to exert his influence to secure the necessary appropriation to finance the games. The sum of 15,000,000 francs already has been set aside to finance the meet, but the Olympic committee has gone on record to the effect that it must have five million francs additional. In the event that it is not forthcoming, the games will be transferred to Los Angeles, Cal.

MINE WORKERS CAN'T GET CONTROL OF $700,000
WASHINGTON, June 7.—The blow dealt union labor by the supreme court in the Coronado coal case was made even more apparent today when it was disclosed that the United Mine Workers will be unable to obtain immediate control of nearly $700,000 held in escrow since 1917 to satisfy the damages levied against the union in the Arkansas federal courts. The money, according to labor men, is sorely needed by the miners in the conduct of the present nation-wide strike, and the only acceptable feature of the high court's decision to labor was that this money would be returned.

RAILROAD LABOR PLANS FINISH FIGHT, IS CLAIM
CHICAGO, June 7.—Railroad labor today has thrown down the gauntlet to its employers and to the United States railway labor board and is squaring away for a finish fight on the wage cut issue. Every indication coming from headquarters of the rail unions, whose wages have been reduced more than $100,000,000 annually in two recent decisions of the labor board, is that no quarter will be given and that the campaign will be fought to a definite conclusion. Strike ballots are in the mail today to more than 1,200,000 members of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and other labor organizations affected by the wage cuts. The ballots are returnable June 30, which makes it possible for a strike to be called by July 1, the date when the wage cuts become effective.

JAPAN MAY FORM NEW BODY OF OLDER LEADERS
TOKIO, June 7.—Possibility of the formation of a new body of Genro or elder statesmen, as a result of the cabinet crisis now faced by Japan, was indicated today with the probable induction of two younger statesmen into the circle that has held the guiding influence in Japanese affairs since the restoration. Conferences with inner circles by Viscount Kiyoura and Viscount Hirata led to this belief. Kiyoura is the successor to Marshal Prince Yamagata as president of the privy council, and Hirata was one of the late prince's most trusted lieutenants. Prince Yamagata, until his death, occupied the position of most power among the elder statesmen of whom but two are left.

OPERA SINGER'S HUSBAND PLACED UNDER ARREST
CARMEL, Cal., June 7.—Floyd Grotzbach, chauffeur-husband of Mme. Margaret Matzenauer, noted operatic singer, whose separation brought on a war of words and later divorce actions by both parties, was arrested today charged with assault and battery as a result of an alleged beating administered by Peter Hannah, wealthy San Franciscan. According to Town Fratives, early today and there found Hannah in a pool of blood, his eyes discolored and suffering from a fractured jaw, blood flowing from both his nose and mouth. Grotzbach, the marshal said, was pointed out as having been the one who had beaten Hannah up. He arrested Grotzbach and sent Hannah to the hospital.

LABOR UNIONS PLANNING TO MAKE HARD CONTEST
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Organized labor, beset by blows which threaten organization disintegration, plans, through its national convention in Cincinnati, to clear industrial decks for a battle for its existence. Smartering under repeated defeats, its heaviest blow received from the supreme court's decision that labor unions are amenable for strike damages, the American Federation of Labor enters its coming meeting grimly determined to "fight to the last," according to labor leaders in Washington. Of paramount importance to the convention, which begins June 12, will be the decision whether organized labor throughout the United States will back a contemplated nation-wide strike. Officials of the American Federation of Labor declared today that the big issues to come before the (Continued on page 3)

NURSERY REVIVAL WINS CROWD AT INTERMEDIATE

Mother Goose, King Cole and Lots of Other Old Stars There to Please

By ART SHERBORNE
Mother Goose's birthday was celebrated last night on the girls' playground of the Intermediate school with a nursery revival. The glittering full moon, some 237,000 miles away, was kindly spectator and shed her radiance over the picturesque scene of Mrs. Goose's cabin in a bower of Fairyland. This cottage was brown, trimmed with bright blue. It had one curtained window and one door through which the characters came one by one—or two by two, as the case might be. In front of the stoop was the stage.

Mrs. the God of War, and Venus, goddess of beauty, were in the audience and flirted with each other most scandalously during performance. Unfortunately, they were too far away to

The Glendale Evening News
Expert Tells of Choice
Offered to Fans

By GEORGE VAN SANDS
Radio Editor The Evening News
The variety of radio broadcasting that is almost constantly coming through the ether is really nothing short of amazing, and the fact is, that no matter how your taste may happen to run there is something up there in the air that is bound to please you. If you don't like jazz, and would prefer to be entertained by grand opera selections, all you have to do is to turn the knob, tune out the jazz and let the grand opera in, and they will not conflict with each other in the slightest.

Last Sunday evening one of the popular broadcasting stations over in Los Angeles that is operated by one of the big automobile concerns was sending out some pretty high class jazz orchestra music on a 320 meter wave length, and at the same time the Bible Institute was giving its regular Sunday evening sermon on a 510 meter wave length, and it was a very simple matter to tune out either one so that they did not interfere with one another at all, and there they were, and you could turn your knob and take your choice.

You know if Bill Bryan or Billy Sunday couldn't go through a whole lot of dramatic arm swinging and body movement, and a lot of other emotional things, their ability would not be so marked, and speaking before a broadcasting station is going to detract a lot from them, while, on the other hand, a speaker may put up a very poor appearance, and be absolutely devoid of any dramatic movements and yet his delivery may sound wonderful by wireless.

Done by Some Clerk
How often have you witnessed some big man making a speech and while their voice and delivery may sound exceptionally fine, how it does detract to see them reading it from a typed manuscript; you always sort of feel that most likely some little $35 a week clerk in his office actually did the writing of it. But speaking by radio eliminates all of this, and you don't know, doesn't hurt you; you can't see it, but you do sort of develop a slight sense of awe, your ears will instantly recognize a speaker whom you have heard before, and you try to picture in your mind what this person must look like.

For a couple of months I had heard the operator at one of the popular broadcasting stations in Los Angeles, and there was something in the voice that made me associate it with somebody I used to know, and I always figured that the operator must resemble this friend. About ten days ago I was up at this broadcasting station and met the operator, and well, it wasn't this friend at all, and what is more he did not bear the slightest resemblance to him whatever, which all goes to show, that you "never can tell."

Questions on Radio

and Their Answers

Question: Please tell me if amplifying tubes and a loud speaker can be hooked up with a crystal receiver?—C. H. R., Glendale.

Answer: Contrary to popular belief a crystal detector can be used in place of a detector tube, and it is possible to use two stages of amplification and a loud speaker on a crystal set, but results obtained by this method are not highly satisfactory, and so much results can be obtained in using the detector tube in place of the crystal detector that it is seldom used.

Question: What do you believe is the best kind of crystal to use in replacing the crystal in a Federal Junior crystal set?— F. H., Glendale.

Answer: A galena crystal known as the "Arlington tested super-sensitive" that retails for 25c in my opinion, gives the best results.

Question: Where should I hook a fixed condenser on a home made set using a loose coupler?
—G. D. S., Eagle Rock.

Answer: Hook it up between the two telephone connections.

Question: I put a test buzzer on my crystal set according to directions, but when I put the switch on, the buzzer makes so much noise that I can't hear anything in the phones. Do you think I must have hooked up wrong?—R. K., Glendale.

Answer: You have it connected up alright if you have followed directions, but you must put the buzzer itself in a soundproof box or bury it in the ground; this will overcome the loud noise that prevents you hearing anything else, and you can then distinctly hear it buzz when you hit a sensitive spot on your crystal.

Question: What kind of wire should I use for my lead-in and ground wire?—T. R. S., Glendale.

Answer: Would recommend that you use No. 14 insulated copper wire.

Paris Combats Crime With Radio As Aid

In order to combat the crime wave in Paris, the authorities have inaugurated its first Police Wireless Patrol. It was demonstrated to the Prefect of Police and proved a great success.
The specially constructed telephone truck while racing to the scene of crime can keep in touch with the main office of the police. The upper picture shows the operator in his cabin on the Radio Telephone truck. The lower picture shows the truck and the non-conducting carpet which is laid down under the car when stopped for more distinct conversation.

MOLECULES AND ATOMS

All substances, as wood, iron, copper, glass and so forth, are very complex structures. We can, of course, cut a one-inch cube of wood into much smaller pieces.
Suppose we should divide it into pieces so extremely small as to be incapable of further division except by chemical action. We would then have the smallest possible particle of wood. The same thing could be imagined in connection with any other substance, water, for example. Suppose we consider water, since it is a common substance. The smallest possible particle of water which could be had without changing the water into something else is called a "molecule." The name is simply given to that smallest possible particle to describe it and distinguish it from, say, a drop of water. The molecule must, of course, be infinitely smaller than even a very small drop of water.
But suppose that the water were heated until steam rises from its surface. If it is boiled long enough the water disappears.
What becomes of it? You say it escapes into the air in the form of steam. True, but what is this steam? We all know that water is a chemical combination of hydrogen and oxygen gas. And we know that either hydrogen or oxygen can rise into the air because it is lighter than water. What really happens is that the water has been chemically disintegrated into its components of hydrogen and oxygen when it is boiled away.

But it is then no longer water.
And when the water has all disappeared we do not even have one single molecule of it left. The oxygen and hydrogen could be collected and separated as it escapes from the receptacle holding the water. We would then have a certain amount of each, and we could let some of each escape. So there must be particles of both oxygen and hydrogen, and the smallest particle of either is called an "atom." Now, neither the oxygen nor the hydrogen can be divided into any other kinds of matter. They are, therefore, called "elements," and the atom is thus the smallest particle of an element, any element. The name "atom" is the one given to the smallest particle of any kind of elemental matter.

No molecule or atom has ever been seen under the most powerful microscope, and yet we can easily imagine that there must be some smallest portion of anything. By computation scientists have found that an atom of any element averages about one three-hundred-millionth of an inch in diameter—too small a particle, almost, to even imagine. In fact, as a noted research engineer has written, there are comparatively as many atoms of hydrogen and oxygen in a drop of water as there would be baseballs in the earth if it were made up wholly of baseballs, all packed together.

NEW APPARATUS AND DEVICES

By RALPH BROWN
RADIO ENGINEER, CUTTING AND WASHINGTON RADIO CORP.

A COMBINED LIGHTNING PROTECTOR AND SWITCH
The device illustrated is a combination lightning protector and pull switch, for use in connection with radio receiving installations only. It is approved by the National Board of Fire Underwriters for that purpose, but not for use with transmitting sets. It meets all of the requirements and can be left permanently in circuit.
The protector is a cartridge shaped affair and is made of a glass tube, which is evacuated after two metal electrodes have been sealed within it. A black fibre tube protects the glass, and a small window is provided for observing the electrodes. Two brass ferrules, one at each end of the cartridge, provide the electrical connection when the protector is inserted in the clips on the holder.

A Fahnestock wire connector is securely fastened to each of these clips, so that connections may be quickly and easily made. The third terminal shown is fastened to a spring clip, which makes contact with a ring on the outside of the fibre tube. This ring is electrically connected to the upper Fahnestock terminal through the

BIG CORPORATION

PLANS LANES FOR

AIR FREIGHT

Development of Carriers Is Soon to Engage Nation, Says Merle Thorpe

By H. T. HOPKINS
For International News Service.
PORTLAND, Ore. — Carrying both freight and passengers, mammoth air liners will, in the not-far-distant future, be placed in service between New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Portland and New Orleans, according to Merle Thorpe, editor of Nation's Business, the official publication of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Thorpe, who stopped here while touring the country to survey general business conditions, declared business is "looking up," literally, as well as figuratively. He stated the formation of a $250,000,000 corporation in Boston, which will establish the mentioned air service, is only one indication that "business is looking up," judging from his extensive survey of conditions from coast to coast.

He asserted that contracts already have been awarded for the construction of two giant lighter-than-air fliers, which will be capable of carrying 700 tons of freight and 500 passengers, and which will be powerful enough to maintain a speed of not less than 110 miles an hour.

"These first two planes will be placed in service between New York and Chicago," said Thorpe.
"Plans of the company call for the construction of nine other machines for service between Chicago and San Francisco with feeders to New Orleans and Portland."

Competition in Air Lanes

"Within a very short time business will have to adjust itself to "look to the air," for there are other phases of air development that are demanding attention.
There should be no time wasted in controversies between railroads and bus lines, for the real competition is coming in the air lanes.
Another dramatic incident in development of air channels is the wildfire growth of radio-telephony.
Already there are 600,000 radio telephones in use in the country, and some program of franchises of the air must be worked out to prevent some trust gaining a monopoly. Seven years from now I predict that every family in the United States will be able to hear the inaugural address of the president. Business must be ready for this development and the development of aerial carriers."

THE new low mark of $10.90

SENIORS TO GIVE FAMOUS COMEDY JUNE 8 AND 9

Booth Tarkington's Play to Be Staged; Rehearsals Prove Promising

"A little laugh, a little sigh, A little surreptitious cry, A little romance, by the way, And lo, behold the Senior Play."

If you were a bug-collector would you marry a chambermaid? George Jordan, senior, says that it depends altogether on the girl. In the senior play, which will be presented Thursday and Friday nights in the high school auditorium, he will play the title role in Booth Tarkington's famous comedy, "Clarence."

An entomologist is "Clarence," a professional, absent-minded, studious, insect catcher.

In the last act he deliberately proposes to Miss Eleanor Sawyer, who takes the part of the governess, Miss Violet Pinney.

Predicts Success

Dress rehearsal was held last night and Miss Mona L. Gardner, dramatic coach at the high school, is sure from the manner the cast has taken hold of the play that it will be a tremendous success. She stated the characters have been "working night and day."

Meanwhile, great efforts have been expended upon the scenery for the two changes during the play. Paul Holland is stage manager. He is being assisted by Atwood Dutcher, Floyd Kinnaird, Russell Eifler and George Roach. George Fraley is property man. Albert Hewitt is chief electrician. He is assisted by Glenn Roberts. Furniture for the play has been loaned by the Page Furniture Company of 308 East Broadway while the baby grand piano comes from 211 North Brand boulevard—the Loomis-Shuck Music company.

Judge Sets Precedent For Insurance Claims

SEATTLE.—In a decision that may become the established precedent in the disposition of millions of dollars of war risk insurance, Federal Judge Jeremiah Neterer recently ruled that the will of a soldier killed in action should be followed with regard to disposition of property or designation of beneficiary.

Irene Claffy, sixteen years old, niece of Clarence Swank, killed in the Meuse-Argonne advance, is by the terms of the decision entitled to collect approximately $9,000, the remainder of a $10,000 policy in favor of Swank's mother, Ma Linda Swank, who died shortly after her son was killed. Irene was named as beneficiary in event of the death of his mother, by a letter from Swank dated July 15, 1918.

REHEARING IS SOUGHT

FORT SMITH, Ark., June 7.—J. B. McDonough, attorney for the Coronado Coal company, will ask for a rehearing of the suit of the company against the United Mine Workers of America, he said today. It was as a result of this case that the United States Supreme court ruled Monday that a labor union may be sued under anti-trust laws.

Modern Woodmen Plan to Celebrate On Anniversary

Glendale camp, No. 12886, Modern Woodmen of America, will celebrate its first anniversary Friday night.

Organized but twelve months ago, this camp has made rapid strides, demonstrating the wisdom of its organization and a personal achievement for Attorney Henry Molz, who was instrumental in bringing the local membership of the Woodmen together here.

Several well known Glendale folk are scheduled to assume the obligation of Woodcraft at this meeting, and the committee on arrangements has promised a good entertainment, including luncheon and refreshments.

The camp's degree team is to appear in uniform for the first time, its members having been thoroughly trained in semi-military drill. At the last meeting six were initiated and eight applications favorably acted upon.

NASH CAR SETS UP NEW RECORD

Mark Five Years Old Is Broken. States Message to E. B. Sutton

"If you own a Nash you have a right to be proud of your car," says E. B. Sutton after reading a telegram from the Troy Motor Sales company, Los Angeles distributors for the Glendale Nash Sales, 112 South Maryland avenue. It told of the Nash breaking road records for the trip from Los Angeles to Salt Lake City, Utah. Following is the message:

"Strictly stock Nash touring car broke record of five years' standing between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City—actual running time 26 hours 21 minutes; previous record, 33 hours, 26 minutes. Nash reduces record by 7 hours, 5 minutes. Car driven back to Los Angeles and arrived in perfect mechanical condition."

"This is a wonderful record of endurance and speed, as roads are worst in the west—practically no pavement on entire route. Any Nash can do it."

"You bet they can," commented Mr. Sutton.

TUSK OF MASTODON IS UNearthED IN KANSAS

PRATT, Kansas.—Workmen digging the basement for a new business block recently unearthed a section of the tusk of a mastodon. It measured about six feet in length and is between eight and ten inches in diameter.

According to Professor J. Rufus Gray, of the Pratt High school, the tusk was probably twelve feet long. The section found was in a good state of preservation and is excellent ivory. Professor Gray said the animal, when it roamed its way over the plains hundreds of years ago was probably twenty or twenty-five feet high and from twenty-five to thirty-five feet long.

About thirty years ago the skeleton of a mastodon, nearly whole, was unearthed in this city. The ribs were eleven feet across.

Yes, indeed! Lillian Lorraine likes her new sweater. The comely star of "The Blue Kitten" is anything but blue. Her pleased expression is the result of her friends' admiration, when they asked her where she got the new silk and mohair slipover of brilliant heather mixture.

Porter on Dining Car Grows Rich From Tips

CHICAGO.—Tips, whether monetary or informative, always were acceptable to William Taylor Johnson, of this city, during his twenty years' service on a cafe club car of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

As a result, Johnson's reputed wealth today is $100,000.

Johnson's principal holding is a thirty-six acre farm at Anoka, Minn., twenty miles north of Minneapolis. Here he has installed the latest methods in scientific farming and has never known a failure.

Despite the responsibilities of this venture, Johnson still remains in the service of the road and the dining car which gave him his start.

RADIO CRAZE REACHES ACROSS SEA TO LONDON

LONDON.—England is catching the radio craze. The London newspapers are now printing long columns of matter extracted from the American press outlining the rapid advances which have been made in the use of the radio-telephone in the United States. The British press is urging that developments be made along the same lines in England.

One radio concert has been given in London in the last two months, and it caused a mild sensation, but, despite the urgings of the press, the British people do not seem to be rapidly absorbing the radio enthusiasm of the Americans.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Glendale on Every Tongue His Whiskers May Be Long Man's Energy Real Wealth Advertise and World Yours

By Gil A. Cowan

WHERE is Glendale? That is the constant comment of everybody in Los Angeles this week who has not seen the Jewel City, the fastest growing community of this class in America.

They want to know where Glendale comes in at for just one reason. That's because the Glendale Rotarians are alive—they are boosters for their own home town.

The advertising obtained in this manner is more convincing than that which is written, for action always speaks louder than words.

Speaking of action—clear thought in time of emergency—Rudolph Wilson of Oxnard deserves first prize.

He was hurrying to the Rotary convention in Los Angeles and ran onto the railroad track in front of a passenger train.

There was no time to turn back, so he headed straight down the ties the same direction the iron monster was proceeding.

Then, choosing a place to jump, he suffered only a broken arm, while his car was wrecked.

Certainly he was considerate of the engineer.

Glendale people who are in Los Angeles this week will get quite an eye full of whiskers when the Sacramento Rotary contingent passes by. All of which calls to mind the fact that Hans Langseth, the king of whiskerdom, has filed charges of fraud against a real estate firm with the California Real Estate Commission.

Langseth has a seventeen-foot beard and reigned over the recent '49 celebration at which time he took occasion to look over land he had bought in Stanislaus county. He says that he found he had no title to the tract, for which he paid $5,600.

Now for a word about this title business. It will pay any purchaser of property in California to have some reputable concern insure the title of real estate, for there is a lot of questionable stuff capable of being peddled by unscrupulous dealers. It is one of the big things with which the California Real Estate Association has to deal with.

How many noticed, we wonder, in the news dispatches, the recent statement of Mr. Crissinger, controller of the currency, that the U. S. hoard of gold is a menace to the prosperity of the world?

That is a difficult statement for the average citizen to grasp, says the Hollywood Daily Citizen.

We have grown accustomed to looking upon gold as wealth instead of as the mere medium of exchange it is.

The point is that gold will do us no good unless we can buy real wealth with it.

The real wealth of the world, we must not forget, lies in the sources of production and man's energy.

The prosperity of the world lies in the ability of men to exchange the products of their labors for the products of other men, and since the medium of exchange is gold and since one nation has a corner on the bulk of the world's supply, there is not going to be the exchange of products to produce the desired degree of prosperity.

Either we must revert to conditions of being insufficient unto ourselves or, if we desire to continue in international trade, we must do all within our power to promote that trade.

California is the land of advertising. At the Rotary carnival in Los Angeles last night 101 different methods of attracting attention to different communities prevailed.

For instance, there was San Pedro with its electrically lighted fishing schooner; Orange county with its display of luscious golden fruit; Fresno with its automobile load of raisins; San Jose and its prunes; and Alameda with its postcards.

Redlands was distinguished by its slapsticks; Glendale by its canes and Los Angeles by its hospitality.

Advertise and the world is yours, it would seem.

Dust Collectors to Cut Price of Shaves

INDIANA HARBOR, Ind.—Strange are the workings of the old laws of economics. Witness: An improvement, to cost $300,000, at the Buffington plant of a Portland cement company is to result in a reduction of the price of shaves in Indiana Harbor.

Day in and day out dust from the cement factory overhangs the city like a pall, and because of this condition local barbers several years ago raised their prices, saying cement dust got into the whiskers of their clientele, making the operation of shaving very difficult—not to mention wear and tear on razors.

But the costly improvement at the plant is to do away with all this. Dust collectors are to be installed, and no more will the "concrete chin" take joy from the barbers' lives and the edge from their blades.

GREAT STORY OF LOVE PICTURIZED

Dashing Rodolph Valentino and Gloria Swanson on T. D. & L. Screene

Adequate praise for "Beyond the Rocks," now showing at the T. D. & L. theatre, with Rodolph Valentino and Gloria Swanson, would require at least a column. It is declared, Ralph Allan, however, in a few words gives some idea of the merits of the play. He says: "Come to see this great love romance by Elinor Glyn, the author of 'Three Weeks.' See the dashing Rodolph Valentino make his ardent love to glorious Gloria Swanson, the captivating heroine. 'Beyond the Rocks' is a new drama, marvelously acted and produced, with great heart interest, and is a story one will not soon forget."

"It is a picture that should not be missed. I believe faithfully that everyone of the several thousand who saw it here yesterday will agree with me that 'Beyond the Rocks' is everything that the public demands in a motion picture."

Many Gardens Planted By Youthful Farmers

WASHINGTON.—Farm and home practices of 1,200,000 farmers, 400,000 farm women and 445,700 farm boys and girls were greatly improved last year as the result of extension work on the part of the department of agriculture in co-operation with the states, according to a report to the department.

During the year, the report stated, 550,000 gardens were established and thousands of tons of fruit and vegetables canned, brined and dried as a result of this work.

Club boys and girls numbering 205,000, who reported the results of their work, produced $5,600,000 worth of products, including pigs, calves, poultry, vegetables and fruits. In addition, there were 240,000 boys and girls enrolled who did not report.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 6th.

Glendale Nash Sales, Glendale, Calif.

Strictly stock Nash Touring Car broke record of five years' standing between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City—actual running time 26 hours, 21 minutes; previous record, 33 hours, 26 minutes. Nash reduces record by seven hours, five minutes. Car driven back to Los Angeles and arrived in perfect mechanical condition. No adjustments, no repairs of any kind necessary. This change will give you a chance to use the Fisk Straight-side Cord Tire—the tire of greater mileage, easier-riding, better-looking qualities. TRIO OF SPEAKERS AT OPEN FORUM TUESDAY CLUB

The Austrian government having passed a law providing for their feeding.
E. J. Myer, Jr., representative of the best sugar industry of California, urged the support of this industry by the women of the state. He stated chemical analysis shows no difference between beet and cane sugar and experiments made by the University of California determined that both are equally as good for preserving purposes. The sugar industry of the state must have the support of the women if it is to continue.

The official report of the election committee, which had been made public in The Evening News two weeks ago, was then made and the following officers declared elected: Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president; Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president; Mrs. C. W. Houston, second vice-president; Mrs. Frank Ayars, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Dunn, recording secretary; Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. J. T. Cramp-ton, directors.

Reports on Pledges:
Mrs. A. M. Williams, chairman of ways and means, reported response from one-third of the club members with pledges amounting to $659. This canvass for pledges is being sponsored by the club in lieu of a society circus for benefit of building fund; $30 was also received from the Shakespeare section.

"Women in Pedagogy" was the subject most ably presented by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, member of the Tuesday Afternoon club and president of Los Angeles Ebell club.

"The lack of appeal to women of teaching, which has been considered the pioneer profession for them, has been because of the many lines of work which have been opened to women in the past ten years," she said. "Especially was this true during the war. The profession is beginning to realize that standards are not what they should be. Teachers of the highest professional standing are needed now not only in the schools, but in educational departments of large industries, as executive secretaries, etc."

"Some of the chief disadvantages have been low salaries and lack of advancement. A great detriment has also been that the teachers have had no part in determining conditions under which they work, curriculum, text books, etc., which lack of participation by them was particularly notable."

"National Education Association investigation show only 25 per cent of teachers in America have had education of two years beyond high school, and 4,000,000 out of 20,000,000 children are taught by teachers under 21 years of age and with little or no high school or professional training. As 90 per cent of the pupils attend only grammar school it is essential to have the best teachers available for the lower grades as well as high school."

In Legal Profession
"Women in the Legal Profession," which she entered in 1913, was the topic of the talk given by Mrs. Kemper Campbell of the Thursday Afternoon club. "The women entering that profession find that many of the laws are defective in that they are not positive in their administration. Laws must be more specific and standards more specific before you can make people good by statute. This, in a measure, will be accomplished by the women," said the speaker.

"To say you are a lawyer in California does not mean much on account of the low standards now required to enter it. You are not a lawyer until you have practiced successfully for some time. A wo-

Slightly Damaged Convention Kelly for Sale, Cheap

"For sale, cheap, one straw hat. Apply E. P. (Hatless) Hayward, 142 South Brand boulevard."

That is too good an ad for the classified columns. It is the final chapter on the Kelly that Hatless had to have for the National Real Estate convention.

He wore the lid just three days, according to his wife, after his father, a hat salesman, had made him a present of it. Somebody ought to buy it for a curio, he thinks.

Eh? What's that? Yes, the hat is slightly damaged, for Hayward perspired rather freely while boasting Glendale at the convention.

CALF WITHOUT EYES BORN IN OHIO TOWN

MEDINA, Ohio—Freak calves with five legs, and some with an extra tail or two, have been born in this section of Ohio. Oldtimers also recall when a calf with three eyes was born in Medina county. But Charles Wolf, living in Copley township, has a calf, born a few days ago, with no eyes.

The calf is a perfect Holstein, except that it is eyeless. Although it has eyebrows the calf has no eye sockets.

man stands an equal chance for succeeding in the profession as a man. Some people come to her perhaps not on account of their faith in her ability but because they have an inherent distrust of lawyers and have more faith in her honesty. Without giving service for clients in winning their cases, lawyers should not charge fees. This kind of business does pay and if men would adopt this standard they would bring the profession back to its former high standing."

Mrs. Campbell advised young women not to enter law school before 25 years of age, as being too immature before that time.

In Newspaper Work

Miss Pearl Hall of a Los Angeles newspaper gave an interesting talk on "Women in the Newspaper World."
"The great adventure in the newspaper business. People go into the newspaper profession apparently for honor it brings and also chances of advancement and interest in the work," she said. "Teaching and this profession, with exception of vacations, are about on the same basis. The field of women's endeavor within the newspaper is very limited. The remuneration, like that of teaching, is small."

"Many aspirants to the profession do not consider that stories must be in by a specified time for the presses and the vast amount of copy necessary. Not only is there that nervous tension of having copy in on time, but also the long hours. The rewards of the profession include the mental development, development humanly, meeting of fine people, literary opportunities, etc."

Miss Hall also related many interesting incidents in connection with her own work.
Mrs. Hutchinson announced that officers of the Tuesday Afternoon club had pledged to place the name of the first president, Mrs. Cora Taylor, now deceased, upon the founder's roll of the state federation, which will cost $100. To raise money the club is planning to present a pageant film of the "History of California," taken at the state convention at Yosemite last year, at the Glendale Theatre Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Manager Howe has donated the use of the theatre for that occasion.

A message was read from the new second vice-president, who will have charge of the year book, asking that members who have changed address or telephone number notify her, and also year they joined the club. Mrs. Hutchinson announced that a reception will be given next Tuesday to the new members who have joined the club during the past year.

NEW MANAGERS DIRECT GARAGE

F. Guhs and O. W. Bremberg In Charge of Business at 1207 N. Central

The Casa Verdugo Garage at 1207 North Central avenue is now under the management of F. Guhs and O. W. Bremberg, both of whom have had many years of mechanical experience.

Mr. Guhs was one of the pioneer garage owners in New York City and maintained an auto repair shop there for sixteen years. He is said to be familiar with every make of automobile on the market.

Mr. Bremberg moved to Glendale about six months ago and is now living at 334 Fairview avenue. Before that time he was employed for a number of years in the mechanical department of the Northwestern railroad and lived in Austin, Ill.

Mr. Guhs and Mr. Bremberg expect to do all the work in their new business themselves and guarantee good workmanship.

W. F. WHITE AND FAMILY ON TRIP

Plan to Leave On Saturday by Automobile for Visit at Former Home

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. White and two children of 364 West Broadway are leaving Glendale Saturday by automobile for an extended summer's outing which will take them to their former home in Plainview, Tex., where Mr. White was engaged in the mercantile business.

Their first stop will be in the Grand Canyon where they will enjoy a week of sightseeing. From there they will go to Colorado Springs for a fortnight and continue their journey to the Lone Star state.

Mr. White is associated with J. M. Malone and W. B. Parks of Malone, Parks and Company, real estate dealers at 131 South Brand boulevard, successors to Paris & Coggins.

ILLINOIS MAN HOLDS SUNDAY SCHOOL RECORD

DANVILLE, Ill.—W. B. Bartlett, bugler at the National Soldiers' Home, is a good boy.

Bartlett, a veteran of the Spanish-American war who saw service with the American fleet, has attended Sunday school regularly for twenty years. He says he has not been tardy once in all this time.

Handles Canoe Just Like Native; Lots of Outdoors Atmosphere Offered

Tom Mix, the William Fox star, gave thrilling entertainment yesterday at the Glendale Theatre, where he appeared in his latest picture, "Up and Going," a story of the Canadian Northwest. Mix seems equally clever at all sorts of out-of-door work. In this picture he gives a fine exhibition of handling a canoe, shooting through the rapids like an Indian.

The picture has many features to commend it strongly. The story is excellent, the scenery beautiful, and Mix, of course, is always "up and going."

Most of the people mentioned are known in Glendale, as Mix is a resident of Glendale now.

"Upper and Lower" will keep your ribs reverberating with laughter. Lee Moran is the comedian.

It's a cinch to bear each other's burdens. They are always so much easier than our own.

They Sleep All Day On One Foot; Awake All Night

Ever see a monkey-faced owl?

Well, if you have seen one here is the opportunity to see two.

They are on display in the window of the Poultry & Pet Stock Exchange at 117 West Broadway.

Like all other owls they sleep all day, standing on one foot, and about 7 o'clock in the evening they wake up for a night of restlessness.

The owls are about the ugliest specimen of the bird family seen by many people and as pets they are a high class curiosity.

FLICKER OF EYELASH SAVES MAN FROM MORGUE

DETROIT—The flicker of an eyelash changed E. M. Sarheim's destination from the morgue to a receiving hospital when Deputy Coroner Conley called for the body of the supposed suicide. Emergency measures taken by the hospital resulted in his recovery.

Sarheim slashed his throat with a razor in a fit of despondency and was reported dead. After ordering a slab the morgue prepared for the body, Conley responded to the call with a coffin. He was about to deposit Sarheim in the coffin when a slight quivering of the man's eyelash indicated that he was not dead.

INTERMEDIATES BEATEN BY HIGH

Girls Meet at Indoor Ball Game and Final Score Is 23 to 10

A splendid game of indoor ball was played yesterday at Intermediate school between the girls' team from the High school and the first team of the Intermediate school, resulting in a score of 23 to 10 in favor of the High school. Bernice Collins is captain of the Intermediate team and Dorothy Cotton of the one from High school.

The greatest wisdom is to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

Gifford Pinchot Wears Victory Smile

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Babe Ruth's batting average for the first twelve games in which he played since his reinstatement by Judge Landis was exactly .222. The twelve games netted him two home runs. In the first twelve games in which he played last year Ruth batted for an average of .439 and he had five home run clouts in his credit.

Earl Caddock is the best example at the present time of a wrestler who makes use of his legs at all times during a bout. There are very few intervals in a match in which Caddock's legs are not at work on some portion of his opponent's anatomy. Caddock's wrestling ability is largely in his legs, which are exceedingly powerful, and the wrestler who gets into one of Caddock's body scissors is made to suffer. Ad Saatel, the light heavyweight champion, is another man who makes good use of his legs. On the other hand, Strangler Ed Lewis is a performer who does practically all his work with his hands and arms.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Because the wary fish have failed to nibble at the bait, the bout between Benny Leonard and Jack Britton is almost certain to be transferred from its present site at Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, to the New York Velodrome.

In this way the tempo of the affair will be changed from a no-decision buck and wing to a two-fisted bout for the world's welterweight title.

The eminent Mr. Rickard will essay no remarks on the subject for a day or two, at least, but his mental comptometer is slowly forcing him to the inevitable conclusion that a crowded house at the velodrome at so much per head is worth more than high prices and empty seats at Jersey City.

The public will not patronize another Leonard-Britton center where decisions are taboo.

Although the proposed change will give him a man's size shot at the welterweight title, it is understood that Leonard himself is

ILLINOIS SQUAD NOT TO COMPETE

Changes in Scoring Method Causes University Team to Quit Contest

CHICAGO, June 7.—Changes in the method of scoring points in track and field meets which are said to be inaugurated in the National Intercollegiate meet on Stagg field June 16 and 17, led today to announcement that the University of Illinois will not compete in the tournament.

Coach Harry Gill, of Illinois, expressed dissatisfaction over the scoring system, which will accord five, three, two, one and one-half points respectively to the first five men placing in each contest. The customary system is to give the first five men, five, four, three, two and one points respectively.

Gill's contention is that the new system favors teams made up of stars who are capable of winning a large number of first places and handicaps a well-balanced team that depends upon second and third places for many of its scores.

Withdrawal of the Illinois team eliminates a strong contender for the championship and makes the chances of California, which has a strong team entered, that much brighter.

Blow Causes Paralysis

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Bobby Barrett, who was knocked out in the ninth round by Lew Tendler at the Phillies' ball park last night, lies today in a local hotel suffering from paralysis as the result of the left to the body which ended the fight. His right leg is affected.

Jim Dougherty, manager for Barrett, intends to claim a foul, as it is asserted an aluminum practice piece worn under Barrett's trunks was found badly dented, which, Dougherty says, is positive proof that Tendler's blow landed below the belt.

Hutchinson to Qualify

LONDON, June 7.—Jock Hutchinson of Chicago, British open golf champion, became an almost certain qualifier in the thousand guineas tournament at Glen Eagles, and a forerunner to the British open championship when he turned in a medal score of 77 for the final 18 holes of the qualifying round today. This, with his 75 of yesterday, gave him a thirty-six hole total of 152, which, barring miracles, will qualify him for the match play rounds to follow.

Some Sport Briefs

NEW YORK, June 7.—Frank Flounoy, representing Fox Rickard, returned today from witnessing Lew Tendler's knockout of Bobby Barrett in Philadelphia with Tendler's signature to a contract to fight Benny Leonard at Boyle's Thirty Acres at Jersey City on July 20. It is said that Leonard already has accepted terms for the match and will sign without delay.

LONDON, June 7.—Mrs. Molla Eljursted, Mallory, entered the semi-final round of the North London tennis tournament today by defeating Miss M. E. Dix, 7-5 and 6-3.

NEW YORK, June 7.—Tex Rickard received a signed contract from Lew Tendler in Philadelphia to meet Benny Leonard at Jersey City July 20, it was announced this afternoon.

HARTFORD, Conn., June 6.—Jim Thorpe, a Giant, has been purchased by the Hartford team of the Eastern League, it was announced.

Reserve Officers of France Get Hearing

PARIS—Officers of the Reserve Corps of the French Army, as the result of a meeting held last October under the presidency of M. Poincare, have succeeded in having an advisory committee of reserve officers attached to the Ministry of War as a permanent feature. Complaining that too much attention was given to the opinions and needs of the 35,000 active army officers, the Reserve Corps, with an enrollment of 140,000 officers, demanded more recognition in the conduct of the military affairs of the nation. Under the new provision the Reserve Corps Advisory commission will be permitted to make recommendations concerning the revision of the army, now so much discussed in the Chamber of Deputies. The commission will include an under-chief of the General Staff, a chief of the Bureau of Schools, an officer in the Cabinet of the Minister of War and about a dozen officers representing the different branches of the service.

Atlanta Man Would Ban 'Monkey Music'

ATLANTA, Ga.—Now comes a man who objects to the brand of canned music dispensed by the child-delighting hand organ while a gaudily-dressed monkey collects pennies from the bystanders.

W. E. Dunn, Jr., secretary of the Southern Metal Trades association, offers to head a subscription list with $10 for a fund to be raised by popular subscription to aid the business section of what he calls the "nuisance of foreigners who grind out music with monkey assistance."

In a letter to the chief of police he says if children enjoy the monkeys it would be better to take the monkeys to the children in the residential sections than to have the children brought to the monkeys in the business section to the worry of their elders.

"Trusting to Luck"

In the 14th century, when superstition and a belief in witchcraft worked a big influence in the lives of people, various good luck charms were depended upon to bring happiness and success.

That old tradition has endured to the present day to some extent, and there are still many who are "trusting to luck" that they will "strike it rich" and in some way be provided for in old age.

But the wise ones are building on a more solid foundation than luck. They know that a BANK BOOK is more reliable than a horseshoe, and are saving a part of present income while their earning power is still unimpaired.

PICNIC PARTY IS GIVEN CHILDREN

MRS. KRESS BACK FROM TRIP NORTH

KNOW WHERE TO CATCH SOME FISH?

Girls' League of Glendale Attends World Conference Of Adventists and Enjoys Visit to Yosemite

Joy was brought to the hearts of about thirty-five children of the Boyle Heights school in Los Angeles yesterday by members of the Girls' League of Glendale Union high school.

These children were taken to Griffith park for a picnic outing. After numerous games had been played, weinies were wasted and dinner was "devoured."

Miss Virginia Huntley of 1434 North Highland avenue, president of the league, took especial pains to see that each of the guests had a good time and got enough to eat.

Mrs. Ethel H. F. Moyses, vice principal, accompanied the party from Glendale.

Where to fish and where not to fish might be the title for a lengthy conversation heard at the Monarch Auto Supply Company's store last night.

Someone ventured to say that smelt fishing by night off Santa Monica is good.

"But don't go to the Malibu if you expect to catch trout," interrupted Harold Raymond of 549 North Kenwood street. "Stanley Deerr of Eagle Rock accompanied me on two different trips and we didn't get anything worth mentioning."

Fishermen, what's your luck?

Mrs. Charles Kress of the Purty Bakery on East Broadway has returned from a very pleasant sojourn of a few weeks in the northern part of the state. She attended the World Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist church that has closed recently at San Francisco, where she was joined by Miss Colima, LaFountain of Walla Walla, Wash., and together they had enjoyed a wonderful trip through Yosemite valley.

Miss LaFountain accompanied Mrs. Kress to Glendale and will be her guest for the next two weeks. Tuesday they were entertained at the home of Mrs. G. W. Sanford.

Prisoner Wins Hearts of Guards With Violin

LOS ANGELES—Winning over the hearts of his prison guards by his accomplished rendition of well-known violin compositions, after he had been condemned to the Siberian penal mines, was the experience related here today by Victor Young, youthful American violinist, who is back in Los Angeles.

The violinist, though but twenty-one years of age, has had an adventurous career. He was born in Chicago and lived there until he was thirteen years old, when his mother died, and his father sent him to Russia to further his study in music. He was continuing his studies in Russia when the war broke out and though too young to join the service, spent much time entertaining soldiers. One day he played a recital for the Czar's family only to be thrown into jail a few days thereafter by the Red Guards.

After persuading the guards not to destroy his instrument, the lack of which he daily with the Reserve Corps Advisory commission will be permitted to make recommendations concerning the revision of the army, now so much discussed in the Chamber of Deputies. The commission will include an under-chief of the General Staff, a chief of the Bureau of Schools, an officer in the Cabinet of the Minister of War and about a dozen officers representing the different branches of the service.

bling game operated by the Sacramento contingent of '49ers while several side shows were mirth-provoking.

A most satisfactory show was staged including a shower of brass, raisins and roses and the Rotary boys' band from Long Beach played at the arena. Irene Howard did an acrobatic dance.
Joe Batista played the accordion.
Irene Jones sang Yoo Hoo again and again with the whole crowd of 6,000 Rotarians yoo hooing with her and the mock bull fight of burros, not forgetting the matadors, picadores and toreadors ripping around, was the prime event of the program, although there was boxing and other features.

Street dancing was heartily indulged in, between free refreshments and tuna sandwiches and one parson from Kansas got full of prunes before the evening was over. They were given away by the San Jose club while Fresno provided the raisins for the coca-cola.

Serpentine and handshakes got everybody well acquainted and the delegates retired at a late hour tired, but happy they had come.

Declaring that no two-edged sword ever will cleave asunder the ideas of fellowship and service, Rotary's fundamentals, Joseph A.
Turner, Roanoke, Va., today voiced the purpose of the organization before a packed audience of approximately 3,000 delegates.

Change in Name
With adoption of the modernized constitution, the name of the organization automatically was changed from International Association of Rotary clubs to "Rotary International." The new name was applauded by members, who declared it was a relief to have a concise but equally expressive term for the world-wide coterie of clubs.

Governed by a new constitution designed to fit the wide spread of Rotary, delegates today witnessed a general exchange of ideas as developed since the last yearly meeting of the organization.

The talks, which were given by leaders of the Rotary movement, were based on the distinct characteristics, which have identified the progress of the organization since its inception in Chicago seventeen years ago.

Strict Honesty
Emphasizing the fundamental necessity of every member and club maintaining strict honesty in its classifications, or lists of business pursuits in which the members are engaged, Arthur G.
Pierce, chairman of the advisory committee on classifications, of Pittsburgh, Pa., outlined the necessity for maintaining strict integrity.

Another subject, for which Rotary is widely known, regular attendance, was discussed by George Dietl, of Buffalo. According to Dietl's expressions, the invariable presence of members at club meetings is one of the causes, which has led to Rotary's rapid spread throughout this and other countries.

At yesterday afternoon's session, reports were read and President Emeritus Paul P. Harris, a Chicago attorney who conceived Rotary years ago, spoke in part,
as follows:

"It is a wonderful thing to have friends. Friendship is a culture. It is always constructive. Rotary is the door to friendship. Let us throw it open to every people. Our goal is the brotherhood of man—and we are going to get it."

"The best minds of the most advanced nations are addressing themselves to the task of finding ways and means to establish universal and permanent peace.
Utopian? Maybe—but we have already traveled a long, long way from him of the bloody club and the stone ax."

Important Position
"Rotary occupies a position of matchless strategic importance of which good use might be made in aid of the most noble purpose." Let us make the most of our opportunities to cultivate personal friendships with men of other nations. The desired result can be achieved only by putting aside national differences and cultivating a charitable disposition toward civilizations essentially different from our own.

"The extraordinary significance of recent electrical developments will be eclipsed by others to come.
Time and space have been wiped out as factors in the opposition of man's communion with his fellow men. It would be a pity, would it not, if with all of our material progress there should still remain any vestige of the old-fashioned, narrow provincialism which has characterized previous times."

There is no gaining the fact that this is something more than an age of monumental discoveries; it is an age of striving and yearning."

With their convention in full swing, many of the Glendale Rotarians are attending every session at which they can be accommodated. Committees are getting busy and, besides international peace, friendship is being urged by the speakers.

third and lastly, he accompanies an aunt on her homeward where he will spend a month on a real western cattle ranch, with a horse all his own to ride to his heart's content, and a

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

New constitution and by-laws were adopted yesterday by International Rotary. More than one club may be formed in cities of a million population now. The board of directors is increased from five to nine and other nations favored.

There are 1214 Rotary clubs in existence. Sixty-eight people handle the work at international headquarters in Chicago.

Attendance talks, miscellaneous business, speeches on Friendship, Ethics, a playlet and the president's ball will keep the guests entertained today.

The delegates from Edinburgh, Scotland, were taken for a motor ride yesterday. Forty-five miles an hour provided too stiff a breeze for their kilties and they couldn't enjoy the fun last night.

Every sidewalk basement door along Broadway, Spring and Fourth streets over which the Glendale Rotarians traveled yesterday noon was the scene of a cane tapping contest. Secretary J. Herbert Smith won first prize.

trict, spoke on "Friendship" as follows:

"No two-edged sword could cleave asunder the idea of fellowship and friendship and the idea of service in Rotary. Rotary understands to provide for all in Rotary equal opportunity for friendship and fellowship. The first is the natural output of the second and the second is the natural output of the first, and either may be first or second."

"Tolerance, reasonableness, thoughtfulness and consideration, deeds of kindness and of service —and friendships will blossom and bear fruit. Rotary deliberately sets out to create an atmosphere of friendliness and good will. And because Rotary succeeds—Rotary is."

"Fellowship is fellowship the world over. Those things that make for friendship in the Rotary Club of Los Angeles, California, make for friends in Glasgow, Scotland, and in Shanghai, China.
The spirit of good will is the important thing. What are nations, states, cities, communities? In the final analysis they all go back to the individual in his social bearings."

"Rotary provides the greatest opportunity in the world today for companionship on equal and friendly terms—and that is fellowship."

The horn of plenty and the trump of fame make a mighty pleasant duet.

children, the eldest of whom is 21

The family are greatly pleased with Glendale and expect to locate pleasant trip through the country, and met many motorists en route east who had passed spoke in highest terms. The fam-

Woman Rail Chief Tells How to Win

CHICAGO—This is to introduce the only woman executive of any first-class railroad in America.

She is Mrs. Edith Jarvis Alden, who has been installed, after a unanimous election, as assistant secretary of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad.

And with her attainment comes the realization of childhood dreams—visions of the impossible.

"When I was young I regretted not being a boy," Mrs. Alden declared when interviewed in the suite assigned to officers. "I wanted to be a railroader, to swing a lamp in the dark and signal fast trains."

Mrs. Alden, who is only thirty years old, began her career with the railroad four years ago. Her father, H. E. Jarvis, was secretary to the president of the road at that time.

With his promotion to assistant secretary and constantly increasing duties he found it necessary to seek an assistant for himself.
His choice was his daughter.

Mr. Jarvis retired from the service recently on account of failing health, and the vacancy consequently arose.

And while congratulations continue to pour into the office of the new woman executive, she, officiallike and in the manner of a dyed-in-the-wool leader, continues in her routine.

"I don't see that there is any secret to it all," Mrs. Alden retorted to a query. "All one has to do is use his head and the way to success is paved."

SHORT SKIRTS TABOO IN NORMAL INSTITUTE

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Skirts worn above the knee are banned by the student body of the Normal school here, it was announced recently.

The announcement was made because of criticism of attire worn by the girls on a recent trip aboard an excursion steamer.

Critics said the girls wore "em above the bend."

In their announcement the student body terms the accusation an insult.

"Normal school girls know better than to wear skirts above the knees," says the announcement.
"They have never appeared like that in public. Never will they.
While we want none of our girls to feel as if they must not wear skirts above the knees we do not believe we should regulate the length of dresses, for some girls are taller than others."

given to understand that their day's frolic was over and that they were ready for slumberland.
After a song about "Babyland" and "Birdies" they all laid down on the stage like little lambs and went to sleep—without a whimper.

Two choruses totaling about 350 children from the various elementary schools of Glendale occupied seats on two sets of bleachers on either side of the stage.
About 700 children had been trained, but it was impossible to have them all take part.

Sleeping Powders
The Sandman is the next on the job. He comes in with his bag of sleeping powders and scatters the dust of peaceful slumber into the air. Next comes Wee Willie Winkie who does a few tricks and finally the dream peddler who sells golden dreams for a silver penny. The stage is darkened and out scamper the tiny tots.

Oh, yes; one thing: Mother Goose's cabin was originally The House that Jack Built. It seems that he moved out in order to go into the contracting business in Glendale. She must be a good housekeeper for everything about the premises is as spic and span as possible.

Mother Goose and the goose girls next come out to take the air and discuss the goose business.
Ma Goose is quite distinguished looking with her tall peaked black hat and her large window-pane spectacles. She happens to be Ernestine Kothe. She is accompanied by Josephine Franklin, Marian Dewey, Marjorie Nielson, Lois Wardell, Dorothy West, Margaret Farmer, Mary Baxter and Marie Warren. All are dressed according to the latest style in Fairyland.

Fairies On Frolic
As soon as the Goose family has taken its place at the left of the stage, in flocks a troupe of blithesome fairies for a frolic.
They are followed by most of the characters of nursery rhyme including the Old Woman who lived in a shoe because she couldn't find a flat large enough for all her children, who begin to fight and "wrasse" as soon as they are tossed loose.

Most of the action is pantomime although several of the characters have solos and all are introduced by the repetition of the appropriate nursery rhyme by the chorus.

The performance was considered quite a success by those who witnessed it. A number of those present commented upon Glendale's need for a civic auditorium or adequate outdoor stage for the presentation of such entertainments.

STORM-TOSSED POSTAL IS RETURNED TO OWNER

ELWOOD, Ind.—Mrs. Bessie Porter has regained possession of a postcard view of Hartford City, Indiana—more or less prized which had been snatched away in the grasp of a vagrant tornado which swept over the neighborhood of Orestes recently. She might not even have missed the card, as it was one of a number of souvenirs kept in an album, but the fact that it made a long flight from the middle of Indiana to Mt. Cory, O., in the lap of the wind, and then came back by mail brought the picture into the limelight. With it came a letter from J. O. Kinsle, of Mt. Cory, who reported that he found it shortly after the tornado whipped over his home. Only a small corner of the card was missing.

To Rid a Place of Ants

Many Glendale people are having excellent results in clearing their lawns and gardens of ants by a method recommended by the United States government.

The process calls for a small quantity of a solution made of sodium arsenate, tartaric acid, sugar, honey, and water in tin cans with the lids only partially cut out, which prevents access other than by insects, and place a number of these cans so prepared around your lot and gardens.

This mixture, as recommended by the Government, is a weak poison, and, while not causing ants to die at once, it is carried to the larvae, and, in time, exterminates the whole colony.

Another effective manner to use is by preparing small cloth bags, dipping them in melted paraffine and puncturing several holes with a hat pin, filling with the mixture, and hanging in trees.

We prepare this formula, both in a concentrated solution to be added to sugar and water, also finished, ready to use.

We will give you further particulars if you will call at our store.
